MR. HOOVER is like George Washington because Washington was an engineer. Like George Washington, Mr. Hoover is a man financially well off, not by any means as rich for our day as Washington was for his day, but independently rich.

Mr. Hoover was able to earn $50,000 a year as engineer before he was 30. He is not a spendthrift and has as much money as he needs. But he has not, and never will have, as much glory as he WANTS, which is a good thing for the people.

His wealth is the kind of wealth that this country admires. Every dollar that he owns represents thousands made for others, many thousands added to productive wealth.

It was suggested here some time ago that after the election you would see fireworks in Wall Street. They started yesterday, in what financial writers called "a Hoover market.' Stock tables with plus signs attached tell what happened.

Oil stocks were especially cheerful. Herbert Hoover is an engineer, knows the importance of conserving natural resources, and may suggest ways to prevent oil waste, establishing co-ordination and wise marketing.

Don't sell good oil stock Don't buy any bad ones offered by mail or house canvassers. And DON'T GAMBLE.

The "Solid South" is broken for the first time since reconstruction days.

And Herbert Hoover, in whose honor it was broken, among dozens of other problems will undoubtedly take up the cotton and textile problems energetically.

When the "Hoover market" opened yesterday cotton "slipped."

Florida, Texas and other Southern States will look to Mr. Hoover for some cotton ideas, and will not be disappointed.

The Republican party is expected to gain eight seats in the Senate, but it is not probable that Mr. Hoover will need them to carry out his plans.

With such a vote as his, Congressmen will understand that the people want Hoover ideas carried out thoroughly.

This country will wonder what, if anything, Herbert Hoover will do about prohibition, which he describes as "a noble experiment."

Engineers believe in experiments, but do not continue them indefinitely if they prove unsuccessful.

Nothing probably will be done about Mr. Volstead until Mr. Hoover decides as to the success or non-success of that noble experiment.

The Democrats, and Governor Smith, their leader, and his supporters need not be ashamed of the vote piled up, about 18,000,000.

It is double the biggest vote ever given any Democratic candidate for President before. And it is 1,500,000 higher than the biggest vote ever given to a Republican candidate, Harding, who got 16,552,200 votes.

Governor Smith's hearty congratulations to Mr. Hoover express the right American feeling.

The thing now is for all Americans to get together and show Europe, Asia and Africa what the word prosperity really means.

This country, once the great sugar consuming nation of the world, now eats less sugar than it needs, A GREAT DEAL LESS, as shown in investigation ordered by Earl D. Bapst, head of the American Sugar Refining Company.

Sugar is necessary to health. Nations insufficiently supplied with sugar, as was shown in the big war, are nations partly starved.

Australia uses per capita 18 pounds of sugar more than the United States, and New Zealand uses 16 pounds per year more than the United States.

This is due in part to the folly of women trying to get thin, told by ignorant specialists "sugar will make you fat."

Sugar will NOT make you fat. On the contrary it will supply heat, and burn up waste tissue.

Children especially need sugar.

15 DEAD, 8 DYING IN LYNN EXPLOSION

Fifteen persons are dead, including a mother and five of her nine children, following terrific explosions of highly volatile chemicals and resultant fire which today wrecked a factory on Brookline Street, Lynn, and five nearby houses.

Of the dead, 11 were killed on the scene --- either blown or burned to death---while the other four died in Lynn Hospital from burns and injuries.

Eight injured are in the hospital and the condition of each is critical. Nobody is missing, and the bodies of all the dead are accounted for and assembled at a hastily established morgue.

Among the bodies are those of Mrs. Harry Blaney of 44 Groveland street, and five of her children. Her husband is reported dying at the hospital. One of their children died there and two others were treated for injuries and discharged.

Most of the dead were workmen in the

GOV.-ELECT HAPPY AND ---WELL, IT'S A BOY!

Governor-elect Frank G. Allen became a father today, making it necessary for him to start wading through another deluge of congratulations.

The baby—a boy—was born to Mrs. Allen, school chum of the governor-elect's daughter at Wellesley College, in the Phillips House, Massachusetts General Hospital.

It is the first child of the couple, and the second of Governor-elect Allen. His daughter is a previous marriage, is 23 years old, the same age as her chum who became a mother today.

Mrs. Allen is the former Eleanor Hamilton Wallace of Pittsburgh.

FIFTEEN LIVES LOST IN LYNN FACTORY EXPLOSION AND FIRE

MOTHER AND FIVE CHILDREN VICTIMS, FATHER DYING

factory building which is occupied by the Preble Box Toe Co.

"Human carelessness" is blamed by Fire Chief Edward E. Chase of Lynn. A thoughtlessly dropped match or cigarette is the supposed cause.

The state, city and district attorney launched investigations while the ruins were still spouting occasional bursts of flame, and Mayor Bauer of Lynn threatened to drive from the city all plants using explosives and not isolated.

It is Lynn's worst calamity. The factory was surrounded by dwellings whose occupants daily had feared a tragedy.

All the workmen in the room where four different kinds of explosives and inflammables were kept were killed and this will handicap those seeking to fix the blame.

Two workmen were blown to death through a foot-thick cement wall of the factory building. Another employe was blown through a door and into the street 20 feet away.

One man died in the arms of a rescuer who beat out the flaming clothing with his own coat only to have the victim slide lifeless to the ground after the flames had been extinguished.

Most of Family Trapped

A general alarm, summoning every piece of apparatus in Lynn and help from Swampscott as well, was sounded when the fire started, with a series of blasts which damaged houses for blocks around and was heard over many miles.

With the first explosion an all-enveloping burst of flame shot from the roof and all four sides of the one and a half-story factory building where the day's work had just begun with 28 of the 30 employes present.

This great puff of death engulfed the nearest house, that occupied by the Blaney family, situated on Groveland st., at the rear of the factory, its wall only six feet from the factory wall.

Flames traveled 100 yards and ignited five houses.

A livid sheet of flame shot out across the radiator of a passing automobile, but the driver escaped.

Then living torches staggered from the building. Two were saved from immediate death by John Kelley, owner of a nearby laundry, who tore off their blazing clothing and then took them to the hospital.

Meanwhile stark terror reigned in the Blaney home.

All except the father and the smallest child, an infant, were up and most of the children were getting ready for school. Explosion and flames came at the same moment. There was no warning.

It was as if a dozen mad fire-fiends touched burning brands to every wall of the house. The flames darted at the occupants from every side, instantaneously, as 17-year-old Harry Blaney, jr., later related.

Houses Burn Like Tinder

The members of the family were hopelessly separated. Several rushed to the front door which they opened, only to be hurled down the front steps by another explosion.

The lives of some of the others were snuffed out by the first touch of the myriad tongues of flame loosed by the blast.

One little girl burned to death standing on her feet before the horrified gaze of her brother. In a few seconds she crumpled to the floor and he fled.

A 63-year-old woman who had a room on the top floor of the house leaped for her life from a window and was found unconscious, probably fatally injured.

At least fifty families poured into the streets from the neighborhood. The flames leaped in all directions. Several other houses caught fire and there were scores of children rescued.

Rescuers in many cases were badly burned but bravely refused to go to the hospital so that others, more critically injured, could be cared for.

The alarm flashed to fire and police headquarters was relayed to other centers and every available ambulance, doctor and nurse in the city was dispatched to the scene.

It was too late to save the doomed members of the Blaney family when firemen arrived and it was likewise too late to save from heavy damage two houses which were burning like kindling.

Firemen plunged into the midst of the flames and police joined them in searching for bodies.

The bodies were taken to the mortuary of Michael Haven and a checkup followed.

Found Dead Near Auto

The two workmen whom Kelley saved muttered that there were many others in the building as they were being taken to Lynn Hospital.

Some of those reported missing were found, burned to death, a short distance from the factory, where they had died running and screaming for help.

Several nearby factories were also threatened and details of firemen were assigned to save them.

Physicians and nurses, called by the Red Cross, followed ambulances to the scene of the tragedy. Many persons were cut by glass shattered by the force of the explosion and were treated at their homes, while others suffered from slight shock, due to fright caused by the explosion.

The authorities were investigating a report that a lighted match carelessly thrown on celluloid was responsible for the explosion.

Several of the injured lived in two houses beside the factory and in three houses across the street. All five houses were partially wrecked by the blast and badly damaged by flames.

The factory where the fire started is in the center of a row of cottage dwellings, with other factories not far distant. It is a semi-residential and industrial district in East Lynn, not far from the Swampscott line.

Firemen probed under heaps of debris and fallen charred timbers when the flames were under control, and there found some of the bodies.

A gasoline filling station stands on Brookline st., a short distance from where the explosion occurred. It was from there the fire alarm was sent.

Volunteers aided police and firemen in caring for the injured and in the hunt for bodies after the stiff battle with the flames had ended.

State Fire Marshal Neal led the State's investigators on the scene and Asst.-Dist. Atty. Edward F. Flynn, with state police assisting him, represented the Essex County district attorney. Surviving employes and witnesses were grilled.

The Lynn city council began an independent inquiry. One of the matters it took up being a report that residents near the factory had protested repeatedly to city officials without any result.

One of the employes was found dead at the side of his automobile in a driveway leading to the factory. He had apparently arrived at the moment of the explosion. Two others were more tardy and escaped.

Fumes and not the explosives themselves may have become ignited, in the opinion of some investigators. It was said that the materials stored included anylacetati, pyronali, acetone and naphtha.

District Fire Chief Harry A. Robinson and Deputy Chief Welch, after thorough investigation of the wreckage, announced that all bodies had evidently been recovered.

Many witnesses were found by the investigators to tell of having seen the flames leaping high from the building following the first terrific explosion, after which human torches ran wildly along the street.

Autoist Hurled in Air Repairing Tire

Joseph Cowdry, 20 Empire st., engaged in repairing a tire on his automobile outside a restaurant of Clarence H. Burnham on Brookline st., a few feet away from the factory, was lifted and thrown to the ground by the force of the blast.

Fire Head Believes All Bodies Found

District Chief Harry A. Robinson of the Lynn Fire Department, in charge of the removal of the dead from the factory ruins, announced shortly before noon that he was satisfied all bodies had been recovered.

Blaney Survivors Who Battled to Safety As 5 of Family Died

FOUGHT WAY OUT
Harry Blaney, Jr., aged 17, who gave dramatic description of horror at 44 Groveland st. He was slightly burned.

SAFE FROM HARM
Ella Blaney, 18 years old, who was at work when the explosion set cottage on fire and drove out others to death.

NOT HOME AT TIME
Lillian Blaney, 12, who escaped before her mother and five other children of family were killed by the flames.

AWAKE AT TIME
Norman Blaney, 13, startled by first explosion, succeeded in making his way to street, but not without burns.

DOORWAY OF BLANEY HOME
Frightfully burned, the body of Mrs. Harry Blaney of Groveland st. was picked up here with those of her children, Harriet, 6 months; Thelma, 6; Helen, 8, and Arthur, 10.

BOY BARES TERROR OF FIRE

A graphic story of the scene of terror in his home when a searing stream of flame was shot into the house, was told by Harry Blaney, jr., 17, whose mother, four sisters and one brother were believed to have perished.

The Blaney home, destroyed by fire, backed up to within six feet of the factory.

Young Harry declared that at the time of the explosion all members of the family of 11 were up excepting the father and the five-month-old baby, Harriet. One girl, Ella, 18, was at work.

"We were getting ready for school," said the boy. "All the family, I think, except Ella, were in the house.

"Suddenly there was a terrible explosion and I remembered being told that if ever I saw a spark or heard a noise to run as fast as I could and get everybody out of the house. We were always afraid of the factory blowing up.

"We trembled there for a second and when I got my senses back I ran toward the kitchen. Vivian (his 13-year-old sister) was there, blazing while she stood up. Her clothes were almost burned off and her body was bubbling with blisters.

"It was a terrible sight and she fell a minute after I saw her. I guess she's gone.

"My father ran out into the street hollering to people to get an ambulance. I went out right after him. Almost the whole house was afire somewhere then.

"The first thing I saw was Jim Wright with his body afire and his flesh burned, lying in front of the factory. He looked as though he was dead.

"Father came back in a little while and he wanted to go back in the burning house, but I wouldn't let him. There was no use going back then because the house was almost completely burned.

"Someone told me that my mother with the baby, Thelma, Helen and Arthur were seen going up the street after the fire, but I can't find them and I think they must be gone."

Hurls 'Human Torches' to Earth; Saves Lives

John N. Kelley, of 41 Tudor st., Lynn, was one of the heroes of the disaster and probably saved two lives.

Kelley conducts a laundry at 80 Brookline st., close by the factory, and was in his establishment when the blast shook the neighborhood.

Dashing to the street he saw two men, both flaming torches, emerge from the doorway of the factory and started running down Brookline st. toward them.

Realizing that they would be burned to death unless he managed to stop them running, he literally tackled both at once and threw them to the ground.

Then, with his hands, he tore at their flaming clothing and stripped them, although his own hands and arms were burned. He carried them into his laundry, applied a lotion to their wounds and placing both in his laundry truck rushed them to the hospital.

Both have a good chance of recovery and Kelley was not seriously burned.

SIX IN ONE FAMILY KILLED

The searing blast of flame that leaped the six feet intervening between the Preble-Eaton Box Toe Company and a cottage home in Groveland st., Lynn, obliterated six lives in a family of eleven.

In the home lived Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blaney and their nine children.

The first year of flame snuffed out the lives of Mrs. Blaney and four of her children. Near a doorway in the home, rightfully burned, he bodies of the mother, her six-month-old daughter, Harriet; Thelma, six; Helen, eight, and Arthur, ten, were found by firemen.

Another daughter, Vivian, 15, the father and two boys, Harry, Jr., 17, and Norman, 13, were burned in the blast and rushed to Lynn hospital.

DIED AT HOSPITAL

There Vivian died a few hours later. The father's condition was serious. The two boys were allowed to leave.

Ella, 18 and Lillian, 12, were the only members of the family to escape unscathed.

The girls were taken to the home of Mrs. Fred J. Mitchell, 100 Brookline st., directly opposite the factory. Mrs. Mitchell was awakened by the first explosion and saw the building consumed. She also saw one of the victims stagger to the street only to die when safety was reached.

"I was in bed in my flat," said Mrs. Mitchell, "when I heard two terrific explosions, the first much louder than the second.

MASS OF FLAMES

"My room was then filled with light, and I leaped out of bed and rushed to the window. The factory across the street was a mass of flames, which were shooting almost across the 60-foot street.

"I saw a man enveloped in flames stagger out of the front door with his hands raised to Heaven, and then collapse on his face. He was burned to a crisp."

Russell Rounds, 14, of 40 Broad st., said he saw a man hurled through the front door of the factory for 20 feet into the street. He was dead when picked up, probably killed by the force of the first explosion.

Every door, window and supporting stanchion in the factory was blown out by the first tremendous explosion and the numerous others that followed.

The surviving Blaney children were not told that their sisters, brother and mother perished in the flames.

After the fire had died down in the house, little Lillian was found gazing in the windows, looking for the missing ones.

Parents Save Children From Death in Flames

George Cammett of 24 Groveland st. saved himself and his three-year-old boy after the force of the explosion, which seemed like a violent earthquake to him, knocked him down. Flames scorched his house.

Mrs. Margaret Frye of 18 Groveland st. and her children, Catherine, nine, and Pauline, 10, rushed into the street. Mrs. Frye lost sight of the children and was distracted with fear that they were dead until she was informed they were at a hospital.

Two other children, Donald and Pauline Mengola of 42 Groveland st., were saved by their father, John Mengola.

BAUER BLAMES EMPLOYE FOR FATAL BLAST

Blame for the explosion and fire which cost 15 lives in Lynn was placed by Mayor Ralph S. Bauer, late today, at the door of an employe of the Preble-Eaton Box Toe Company.

Mayor Bauer said he was satisfied that the explosion was due to the carelessness of the man in flipping a cigarette butt toward a barrel in the plant.

He based his statement, he said, upon information furnished him by Lynn police inspectors who interviewed four of the injured employes.

The charge that Mayor Ralph M. Bauer of Lynn had ignored petitions of residents to have the factory on Brookline st. moved to a more thinly settled neighborhood was made by Mrs. E. J. O'Connell of 23 Groveland st., today.

Mrs. O'Connell said residents of the district, particularly those on Groveland st., feared for the lives of their children, and they had told the mayor the plant was a menace.

FOUR THEORIES OF EXPLOSION UNDER PROBE

While state and Essex county investigations of the Lynn disaster were under way at the hands of Fire Marshal George C. Neal and Asst. Dist. Atty. Edward F. Flynn of Salem, four theories of its cause and origin were advanced by investigating public officials.

One theory held the explosion occurred when a tool, held by a workman, created a spark when it hit a steel tank, which ignited inflammable vapor; another laid the blaze to a carelessly discarded cigarette; another to a match struck in the factory mixing room, while still another blamed the tragedy on a static spark from atmospheric electricity.

Chief Edward E. Chase of the Lynn fire department, while extolling the modern fireproof construction of the plant and its fire-fighting equipment, declared it to be his belief that "human carelessness" caused the tragedy, but declined to place individual blame.

His deputy chief, Thomas Cadwell, adhered to the opinion that the spark following the clash of tool and tank ignited the chemical vapors and Deputy Chief Herbert W. Robinson voiced the theory of the alternative causes, the static spark, discarded cigarette and coverty struck match.

Capt. John H. VanAmburgh, state explosives expert, after a thorough examination of the ruins, described the blast as a "typical vapor explosion."

Mother and 2 Knocked Down by Blast; 2 Hurled From Bed

Mrs. Evelyn Hutchinson of 92 Timson st. and two of her four children were thrown off their feet when the Lynn explosion shook their home 100 yards away, she related today.

Mrs. Hutchinson

Two other children, Marion, 5, and Rosamond, 3, were hurled from their beds.

Mrs. Hutchinson and the two older children, Constance, 8, and Philip, 6, had just left their beds and were dressing when the blast came.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

BOSTON, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1928

The firemen worked with feverish energy to subdue the flames so that it would be possible to start a search through the ruins and wreckage for they knew not how many bodies. The hope of finding anyone alive was slim, as it did not seem that any living thing could exist where flame and explosion had worked such awful havoc. To the firemen fell the sad duty of locating the bodies of the victims and removing them from the debris to the waiting ambulances, which bore them away to be identified. David W. McCoy, 15 Marianna st., Lynn, Lynn Hospital.

Kenneth Kirwin, 27 Ridgway st., Lynn, missing.

Harry Eranian, 233 Chestnut st., Lynn, at home, slightly burned.

William Clements, 18 Collins st., Lynn, dead

Louis E. Poffer, 24 Norfolk ave., Swampscott, dead.

Lodger Rescues Five Children at Blaze

Five children of Raffi Mazzola of Groveland st., directly in back of the blazing factory, were rescued by Joseph Guissippe, 45, a barber and lodger in the house.

Frances Mazzola

Guissippe, who was asleep on the top floor of the house, was awakened by the explosion that threw a sheet of flame across the street, setting fire to several houses, he said.

The lodger ran downstairs to learn that the five children in rooms on the first floor had not been seen.

He darted back into the house, secured the children, passed them out the window into the arms of several other men, then fled the house himself for the second time

Blast Blows Six Off Chairs in Lynn Lunch Room

Six men, eating breakfast in Burnham's lunchroom in Brookline st., adjoining the factory where the tragic explosion occurred, were blown off the stools upon which they sat.

Edward Day, chef, declared he did not wait to see anything after teh explosion blew a kettle out of his hands. He leaped into the middle of Brookline st. and spun around like a leaf in a gale.

Not even a window pane in the place was broken but the paint was blistered, while on the opposite side of teh factory six in one family were killed.

RED CROSS AIDS AT LYNN BLAZE

The disaster unit of the Lynn chapter, American Red Cross, was early on the scene and set up first aid quarters in the office of Kelley's Excelsior Laundry at 88 Brookline st.

There the slight injuries of six firemen were attended by nurses and physicians who answered the emergency call, and there also appeared many residents of Groveland st., who were cut by glass shattered by the terrific blast.

Carl A. Hempel, vice-chairman of the Red Cross chapter, and Charles Comstock, director of the disaster unit, were in charge. Dr. Charles Worthen, Dr. George W. Haywood and Dr. William Fraser attended the suffering.

The work of assisting relatives in the identification of dead and injured was undertaken by the Red Cross, and a meeting was called for later in the day when the matter of caring for the orphaned and homeless will be discussed.

WOMAN SEES FLAMING KIN FALL AT FEET

Mrs. Gladys Smith came to the doorway of her home, just a few houses removed from the Lynn factory, today to learn of the cause of the noise she had heard and which had sounded like an explosion.

She had just opened the door when a flaming man turned into the driveway, stumbled a few feet and collapsed.

Running down, she was horrified to see that the torch was her cousin, Israel Clements, an employe of the box toe factory.

"Tell my father, Gladys," he moaned while she beat out the flames.

Two firemen relieved her of her cousin and rushed him to Lynn Hospital.

HEAD A BALL OF FIRE AS MAN RUNS WILD

A man, with his head "a flaming ball," rushed out of the factory as Charles W. Bickford, manager of a Lynn restaurant, was passing the plant as the Lynn explosion came.

Bickford was on his way to East Lynn when he heard the blast and then saw the fire.

"Right afterwards" said Bickford, "I saw a man rush out, his head was a flaming ball.

"I took off my raincoat, placit on him and succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

"But apparently he had inad some of the fire because he suddly dropped down to the street, dead

A New Discovery for the

DEAF

Here at last is help of the kind you've hoped for—a new type hearing aid that you can wear in absolute comfort, without embarrassment, and that will bring you relief such as you have never known—hearing aid so natural in tone that you can almost forget your deafness.

THE NEW Universotone

German science has again give s the world a great discovery—a tiny, new instrument providing such try s and perfect aid to hearing that it has the endorsement of physicians and ear specialists of both Europe and America. With the new UNIVERSOTONE, even severely deafened are enabled to hear clearly and distinctly, absolutely free from buzzing or static.

Never before has amplified sound been transmitted in such true, natural tones—so exquisitely pitched. Never has such range and volume been available in one instrument.

With its tiny earpiece comfortably tucked in the ear, it is actually less conspicuous than ordinary eyeglasses and can be scarcely noticed by the people one meets.

DEMONSTRATION NOV. 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th

For the first time in this city, an expert from the staff of Dr. Hugo Lieber will demonstrate this new discovery at our offices on the dates mentioned above. Everyone suffering from impaired hearing in any form should call for a demonstration. Consultation is private. There is no fee, no obligation to purchase. This opportunity will not come again soon, so don't fail to call during this expert's visit. Consultation 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

BOOSTED TO RING ALARM

SCHOOLBOYS CALL FIREMEN

Albert Hersey, 16, holding up Herbert Ellison, 12, to sound the alarm after seeing big Lynn fire and running to the nearest box. They are schoolboys and were passing through Brookline st. when they heard the explosion and saw flames shoot out of the factory.

BAUER DEMANDS THAT NEAL BAR EXPLOSIVES

Every concern in Lynn using explosive materials in a manner resembling a hazard, will be "chased out of town," the Mayor of Lynn declared today, after investigating the factory explosion and fire that took 12 lives.

"It is up to Neal (state Fire Marshal George C. Neal) as to what shall be done about this present matter," said the Mayor.

"I have asked Neal to revoke every permit for the use of explosive materials in manufacture or otherwise in any building not isolated at least 500 feet from any other building, and in each building into where which is used in other industrial effort.

"Explosive materials are sometimes used in shoe factories in connection with the manufacture of box toes and wood heels, and I shall insist that Mr. Neal put through a law like that even if we have to lose the entire shoe industry in Lynn. They are not going to kill off our people.

"This is the worst calamity Lynn has ever had. I have asked Mr. Neal to make a thorough investigation.

"Haverhill had a sad experience of this kind and I understand that Haverhill chased all those explosion hazards out of town. I am going to do the same thing.

"As a result of the investigation I made I learned that several dwellings were within 40 feet of the building in which the explosion took place, and in the case of Mrs. Blaney and her four children they were simply shriveled up by the intense heat. They had no chance whatever.

"If a law such as I have suggested were in force that mother and her children would be living today."

Tells How Lynn Fire Shot Out Over Auto

John T. Stevens of East Clark ave., Lynn, an eye-witness of the Lynn explosion from the outside, declared the flames shot over his car as he was driving by the factory on Brookline st.

"I was driving past the factory on my way to work," said Stevens, "when just as I was in front of the building there was a tremendous explosion and a mass of flames shot halfway across the street. They passed over my car, so close I could feel the intense heat, but did not damage the machine.

"I came to an abrupt stop, and then reversed the machine and backed out of danger. As I was doing so a man wearing a white coat ran out of the building, which was now in flames. He appeared to be demented. He was shouting: 'There are five men in there burning to death.'

"I tried to enter the building, but the front door was a furnace. I ran around for some time, but could not get into the burning building. In the meantime someone called the police and fire departments.

"I think George Preble, one of the firm of the Preble-Eaton Box Toe Company, occupying part of the building, perished in the flames. There was a car parked in front, which was practically destroyed, which I am sure was his. I knew him very well, but did not see him anywhere at the fire."

EYEWITNESS TELLS STORY OF FIRE'S FURY

George McKenzie, driver of a laundry truck, was loading his truck at the laundry directly across the street when, he said, the explosion rocked him against the side of the truck.

"I rushed over to give aid," said McKenzie, "but the place almost immediately was a furnace.

"There was nothing I could do, but after the fire had reduced down somewhat in fury, I helped bringing out five bodies.

McKenzie emptied the laundry out of his truck, he said, and used the truck to carry the bodies to the morgue.

3 FIRE VICTIMS DIE IN STREET

Police Sergt. John Hines and two patrolmen in Brookline st. a few moments after the blast occurred, rushed to tear burning clothing from three victims who fled from the factory.

They did so, and the three men collapsed and died at their feet.

Another "flaming torch" was extinguished by Herman Zahr, a Brookline st. blacksmith, and Fred Champion, milk dealer. The victim was given first aid at the blacksmith shop and rushed to the hospital, where his condition is serious.

WOMAN, 62, IN 2-STORY LEAP

Trapped by the flames on the floor above the Blagoy family, Mrs. Mary Gallagher, 62, forgot the infirmities of her age to save her life in a leap from the second story.

Almost frantic in unsuccessful efforts to escape being roasted alive by means of front and rear stairways, Mrs. Gallagher was further stricken by her inability to attract the attention of rescuers in the street below.

Firemen stumbled across her unconscious form, moaned by sheets of flame as she lay on the ground, and rushed her to the Lynn Hospital, where her condition was reported to be serious.

LYNN FIREMEN WORK LIKE HEROES

One of the horror of the explosion emerges the heroism of the Lynn Fire Department, whose officers braved the dangers of the flaming mass of ruins to aid their men in control of the fire and recovery of the dead.

District Chief William Kelley, on vacation, responded to the general alarm and in civilian clothing ran the gamut of fire, smoke and water in company with District Chiefs William Welch and Herbert W. Robinson, in charge of the fighting force.

Fire apparatus had in addition to the main factory blaze, six other separate outbreaks in nearby buildings to contend with, but the strategic distribution of the men and apparatus of the Lynn Fire Department resulted in extinguishing all within two hours.

The Swampscott fire department sent its aid to the Lynn force by dispatching a contingent of its apparatus and a squad of Gloucester policemen on calls through Lynn to Boston halted their trip to assist in the rescue and control of fire and pedestrian traffic near the blaze.

Bodies of 5 Victims Found Huddled in Fire-Swept Home

Firemen searching the Blaney home, in Lynn, for victims of the explosion and fire found the bodies of Mrs. Blaney and five children huddled in a heap and badly charred just inside the closed rear door of the house.

RESCUE NAKED BABY IN FIERY DOORWAY

Devoid of clothing as the day she was born, a two and one-half year old unidentified baby girl toddled through the fiery portal of a flaming house on Groveland st., to be snatched up by a passing woman neighbor, and drop out of sight again an hour later.

Her rescuer, Mrs. Harry M. Corson of 15 Groveland st., said the baby had passed through the fire unscathed, but she was unable to locate her mother, the burning house apparently being vacant.

An hour later the baby was taken by a woman, who declared it was her sister's, and who vanished with the infant.

STRANGE SIGHT.

"It was the strangest sight I ever saw," said Mrs. Corson, in relating the discovery of the little girl.

"I had heard the thunderous crashes of the explosions and saw the flames shooting from the factory. I hurried out, as I have a friend who lived only two doors down the street from the factory and I was anxious about her. I knew it was about 8 o'clock, as my son goes to college in Boston and he was leaving to take the 8:06 train.

"I hurried down the street and got past the burning houses opposite the rear of the factory. Several of them were a mass of flames.

"Just as I got past I stopped in amazement, for there, walking through the front door of a burning house, was a naked baby girl. She didn't have a stitch of clothes on and was rubbing her eyes. She seemed dazed.

"I ran over to pick her up and as I did so she put up her hand over her eyes as though she was afraid, as though she didn't know what was going to happen. I stooped and picked the little one up and put her under my coat.

NEVER WHIMPERED

"She never whimpered, although the poor little thing must have had a terrible experience. It was raining and cold too.

"I asked passersby whose baby she was, but no one seemed to know and there was nobody in the house as far as I could see.

"For a long time I went around searching for the mother whom I naturally assumed would be frantic, but nobody around knew of any woman who had lost a baby. I held the little tot for close to an hour.

"I was just about to take her home with me when some women looked and one of them said: 'That's my sister's baby.' She took the child and that's the last I saw of her."

Two Children Cheat Fire Death by Punctuality

Punctuality in school attendance saved the lives of Katherine and Patricia Frye of Groveland st., and to the same token cheered the heart of their mother, Mrs. Margaret Frye, who feared they had died in the catastrophe.

Mrs. Frye, employed at Kelly's

Missing Their Train Saves 2 Boys in Factory Blast

Kenneth Finlayson, 19, and his brother, Arthur, 17, of Hillcrest st., Saugus, believe themselves the luckiest youths in Lynn today. They missed their train from Saugus and arrived at the plant of the Preble-Eaton Box Toe Co., where they are employed half an hour late.

Kenneth Finlayson

The brothers, hastening along the sidewalk to the factory, were but 50 feet from the door when the fatal blast came and flames shot from the windows.

Excelsior laundry, adjacent to the scene of the explosion, rushed from her work under the ominous dread of the death of the children, only to find they had departed for school a few minutes before the disaster occurred.

She learned from neighbors that her children had called at the Blaney home for members of that household to attend the same school, but went their own way when they discovered their Blaney companions were not ready to accompany them.

GIRLS' GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF FIRE HORROR

The girl sophomores at Lynn English high school started for school today but never reached there. Instead they raced to the scene of the explosion and fire and arrived to see a number of persons in flames.

The girls are Mary E. Larrabee, 16, of Pacific st., and Marjorie D. Emery, 15, of Jackson st.

"We were at Marianna and Jackson sts.," said Mary, "when my sister, Ruth, remarked, 'The sun's coming out while it's raining.' I looked around and said, 'The sun's nothing; it's a fire. Let's go.' But Ruth kept on toward school, while we ran to the fire.

"When we got near the building, we heard a man crying, 'Save me! Save me! Open the door!' Five men tried to open it but it fell in. The screams stopped just before it fell and the body of a man was carried out.

"Three houses were burning. There were men and women and children running around and screaming. Some were trying to save their belongings.

"We saw a woman in a bathrobe and slippers rush out of a house with a naked baby around which she was wrapping a blanket.

"We also saw a man run out of the factory and down Groveland st. toward Empire st. The bottom of his trousers and his shirtsleeves had been burned off."

FUR FACTS

For Women

No. 2 of a Series of Interesting Fur Bulletins to Better Familiarize the Women of New England with the Various Furs—Their Durability—and Scott's Unique Service

Do you ever stop to think how important a role the salesperson plays when you purchase a fur coat? Fur is by nature an article about which you probably know very little. It is necessary, therefore, that the person who aids you in selecting your coat is in a position to advise you wisely and in your interest when you make your fur investment. In other words, he must be a friend.

Scott's sales organization is thoroughly experienced in furs. You will find them willing to tell you at all times, truthfully and without bias, the wearing qualities of each fur and their respective prices. They are instructed to suggest only those coats which will adequately suit your needs and your pocketbook. No sale is a profitable one unless you are satisfied, not only today, but five years from now.

Please feel yourself at liberty to visit us any time and examine our coats. Whether you intend to purchase or not, you will always be assured of a cordial welcome.

SOCIETY DELIGHTS IN CHARITY SELLING

Betty Alden Notes Activities of Smart Set Matrons and Maids at North Bennet St. School

SELLING THINGS FOR CHARITY IS A DUTY SMILLINGLY CONVERTED INTO a pastime by Madame and Mademoiselle Bon Ton, who adore "the thrill, my dear" of playing pretend at a job, if they do not actually figure in the marts of trade in a pin money way. And when the North Bennet Street Industrial School collection of treasures is annually brought up town for sale social richits of three generations pounce on it with chorties of glee, blissfully disregard luncheon or tea engagements and take to "arranging" a salon or terrace garden, a Normandy cottage interior or a Doge's apartment perfectly oblivious to time's passing.

UNENDING DEVOTION, HOUR ON HOUR, THEY put to interior decorating with a collection unequalled for range and choice, a blue ribbon outfit for which George Greener of the school is responsible. Summers are Mr. Greener's open season in the antique hunt. How he wheedles choice treasures from castles and cots savors of necromancy, and is a secret he doesn't divulge, of course. But there are the things. He gets them. They come through the customs and so to bloom each year into a great big golden harvest for the school fund. In December, sometime, all these lovely things will come out of their crates for the sale, date and place of which are still uncertain. And the besmocked social lights will delve busily for Charity, "the greatest of these."

BOSTONIANS OF THE OLDER ORDER FEEL they have certain proprietary interests in the school. Specially are the Shaw connections thus benevolently inclined, since it was the Mrs. Quincy Adams Shaw of a former generation whose name blazons forth on the honor scroll, as founder. Present day ladies Equality ardent in support are Mrs. Samuel Cabot, Mrs. Joshua Montgomery Sears, Mrs. John Homans, Mrs. Roger Warner, Mrs. Henry Lyman, Mrs. Sumner Pingree, Mrs. Robert Stephenson, Mrs. Harris Livermore, Mrs. Edwin Farnham Greene, Miss Ethel A. Forbes, and some gentlemen of the same exalted spheres—Messrs. J. Templeman Coolidge, R. Clipston Sturgis, F. L. W. Richardson, et cetera, et cetera, are ingustly interested.

FOR THE DANCING DEBUTANTE THERE stretches away into the winter of 1928-9 some miles and miles of syncopation yet to be trod. A baker's dozen or more of debutante balls makes this a season to forever cherish in Memory's Book. Of course she dances everywhere she goes. At teas, when gallants drift into pay their respects. At dinners, leaving the entree for a round and letting the demi tasse cool as she steps to brassy toots and wallings. But chiefly she loves the large parties; the enormous ball in gilded salon, done magnificently, with ushers by the score, tons of flowers, and a won't go home until morning gayety pervading it.

MANY'S THE GIRL WHO COMES OUT IN A season or just "leaks" out, or in some manner achieves a social entree. But not every but can command the ne plus ultra in festivities that certain doting parents are bestowing on their darling daughters this gay and giddy and cold starred winter. The buds are saving their most adorable frocks for the 16 or so large balls, of which the Henry Lyman affair for Miss Cora Lyman, the Elisha Flagg festivity for Miss Mary Flagg and the Phineas Sprague elaborately done presentation for Miss Sally Sprague will be greatly relished.

TO THESE MISS MODERN will take her own latchkey, cache it safely, and dance away until there's not another step left in her pert, slender-heeled slippers. The Lymans are giving one of the winter's most recharche parties for their lovely daughter. All those wise and observant dowagers looking on from the gilded chairs opine that Miss Lyman, with her elan, her joie de vivre and crop of lovely curls is to be one of the season's outstanding successes. The ball, done for her in the grand manner, is in December and walls its syncopated way to morning's hours in the Hotel Somerset's French ballroom.

WHEN FRAGRANCE OF PERFUMES and countless blossoms suffuse the Somerset's ballroom on December 12, it will be Miss Mary Flagg who stands with her parents as the boutonniered ones present the guests. Miss Flagg is a greatly to be envied bud. Her coming-out dance is one of 1928's chief reasons for being voted thrilling by the debutantes. Another reason for the debbies to consider their winter dazzlingly important is Miss Sprague's party, set for December 7, and, of course, lavishly done. In honor of the Sprague second daughter, so richly endowed with that enviable trait called "charm" for want of a better word.

PILING RICHNESS ON RICHNESS for the buds there are the Thomas Lindsay dance; the one for Miss Luisita Leland, and Mrs. William H. Brown doing the right thing for Miss Adelaide Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leland take over the Somerset's ballroom November 28 to give their attractive child the sort of send-off to social triumphs every bud hopes to have. The Lindsay celebration, with dancing, dinners and all the debutantes, honors their second daughter, Miss Florence, and will cause all Boston's First Family dowagers to appear, even briefly, for this important girl.

FOLLOW THE DEBUTANTE ON her brisk round today and you'll see the dear thing has added considerably to her dancing mileage. This evening she syncophates at the Lyman town residence, in Commonwealth ave., where Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lyman entertain for Miss Joy Greene and Miss Ruth Lyman. The afternoon hours, devoted to tea dancing, had Dr. and Mrs. Horace Stevens as hosts for Miss Helen Stevens, and this noon the debbies invaded the Chilton Club, a hundred strong more or less, to lunch delectably as guests of Mrs. James Melville Hunnewell and in honor of Miss Susan Moller.

NEAR WAR IN TEXAS OVER ELECTION

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 8 (AP)—Opposing factions of both political parties in Texas, well warmed to their work by the campaign which closed Tuesday, caught their second wind today and refused to recognize the election as marking an armistice.

In Hidalgo County, where the Democratic party was opposed by the "Citizens-Republican" ticket, also known as the "Independents," made up of both Democrats and Republicans, excitement attendant upon tabulation of the vote continued. Reports said the Independent faction at McAllen had wired Governor Dan Moody asking the proclamation of martial war in the county. Rangers already are in the county, sent there to supervise the election.

RANGERS IN ACTION

Rangers accompanied a ballot box from Mercedes to Edinburgh, the county seat, to make certain that it was not tampered with before the votes were counted.

The independent faction of that disturbed county recently sent about 2000 telegrams to President Coolidge asking federal supervision of the election, and has threatened to deluge the White House again because of dissatisfaction with methods used by election officials.

Meantime the wounds the campaign opened in the Democratic party, traditional ruler of this State, become more irritated instead of healing in the post-campaign relaxation.

DEMAND LEADERS QUIT

Leaders of the bolters, who apparently have thrown the State to the Republican column in a national election for the first time in history, demanded the resignation of regular party leaders, who, they charged, are "tainted with Tammany." The regulars replied that bolters would never run the affairs of the Democratic party in Texas and declared they would rather lose with Democrats than win with Republicans.

Judge R. D. Sartin of Wichita Falls, an anti-Smith leader, announced the machinery which was set up to oppose Smith would not be scrapped, but would be maintained to purge the party of "Tammanyism."

Shooting Star Shower Coming Next Thursday

Chicago, Nov. 8 (AP)—Next Thursday night there will be the most brilliant spectacle of shooting stars ever afforded this generation, it was forecast today by astronomers at the Yerkes Observatory, Williams Bay, Wis. On that night the earth moves into the astral region of the Leonid meteors, believed to be the remnants of a comet.

The Leonid group, it was explained by Prof. Edwin Frost, director of the observatory, whirls around the sun in an orbit that crosses the earth's. Every November the orbits meet, but in an interval of every 33 years the earth passes squarely through the center of the Leonid orbit.

"The meteors speed through interplanetary space at a temperature about 500 degrees below zero," Prof. Frost said. "When they enter the atmosphere of the earth the friction heats them to a glow and they usually burn up before they strike the ground."

"Do you mind if I ask you?"

Funny thing, sometimes you wear new things and none of your friends seem to know the difference. And sometimes they all seem fairly driven to ask "Do you mind telling me where you got it?" They'll ask loads of questions about your new fall shoes if you get them at Coward's.

For our new styles just have that odd something that doesn't get ignored. Little details of trimming, the general lines of smartness, the new leathers and colors... all make the new fall styles in Coward shoes the most attractive you can imagine. And they are all, every single one, the most comfortable, easiest-to-wear shoes you've ever even tried to imagine.

SEE ROOSEVELT 1932 CANDIDATE

By DAVIS P. SEVERN,
International News Correspondent.

New York, Nov. 8—A new national figure arose today from the ashes of the Democratic party—Governor-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York.

Drafted as the Democratic gubernatorial candidate to strengthen the Smith Presidential ticket, Roosevelt outran his party's chief. Despite the crushing defeat administered Governor Smith in his home state, Roosevelt was swept into the Governorship and pulled the Democratic state with him.

Franklin and Smith have been like crossed fingers for years. They met in the State Legislature, back in 1910, when Roosevelt defeated a Tammany candidate for the Democratic Senatorship. To this day newly elect Roosevelt as a Tammany man, which may influence a lot of Democratic delegates in 1932.

POINCARE MAY SUCCEED HIMSELF AS PREMIER

Paris, Nov. 8 (AP)—Raymond Poincare today continued to resist the pressure of friends and supporters that he form a new government.

In the meantime President Doumergue consulted members of Parliament and a great majority of them persisted in the opinion that the retiring Premier was the only man who could bring order out of the Parliamentary chaos. The Socialists, who have remained aloof, reserve their opinion. All others declared that M. Poincare should be called to power again.

An Old Recipe to Darken Hair

By JANICE RANDALL

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when it is faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for only 75 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

430,000 VOTE 'SWITCH' ALL AL NEEDED

New York, Nov. 8 (INS)—Figures won't lie, but they can be marvelously juggled.

Governor Smith was the worst defeated Democrat in history in the Southern college, and ran perhaps 1,000,000 votes behind Herbert Hoover in the popular vote of some 35,000,000.

A statistician figured out today that a shifting of only 430,000 votes in that enormous total of 35,000,000, that is, if 430,000 voters in 15 selected states had voted for Smith instead of for Hoover he would have been elected.

Governor Smith received 87 electoral votes in the eight states that he carried—Massachusetts, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Arkansas.

Thirty-two electoral votes would have been Smith's had 10,000 of those who voted for Hoover voted for Smith instead. Florida's would be in the Smith column by a similar shift of 20,000, North Carolina's 12 would be moved by another 25,000 shift, Virginia's 12 by 15,000, New Mexico's 3 by 10,000, Connecticut's 7 by 25,000, Missouri's 18 by 30,000, Nevada's 3 by 4000, North Dakota's 5 by 12,000, Wisconsin's 13 by 30,000, Minnesota's 12 by 50,000, Colorado's 6 by 30,000, Tennessee's 12 by 50,000, Montana's 4 by 15,000 and New Hampshire's 4 by another 20,000.

Thirty-two more were all carried by Hoover. Their electoral vote with what Smith won, anyway, totals 266—about enough to win in the electoral college.

The 430,000 popular votes, appropriately enough, would have changed the entire election, and perhaps the history of the world. Figures are funny things.

Find Body in Woods

The body of a middle-aged man was found today in the woods bordering on the Woburn-Burlington line, about 50 yards off the main highway between the two towns.

ELITE STIRRED AS LODGE'S KIN QUITS HURRY

The exclusive social set of Boston and the North Shore is shocked by the revelation, made by way of the Essex County Court, that W. Gorden Means of Pride's Crossing, Beverly, and his wife, the granddaughter of the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, have come to the parting of the matrimonial ways.

The rift in the couple's domestic affairs is revealed by a petition filed by Means asking for the custody of the three-year-old son of the couple, Augustus Gardner Means. The petition also reveals that since Means and his wife have parted Mrs. Means is living in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Means has not yet indicated whether she will fight her husband in his efforts to secure custody of the child.

This is by no means the first time that the couple have figured in court actions, for both Means and wife were married and divorced before they were joined in wedlock on March 23, 1924.

Mrs. Means' maiden name was Gardner. She was the daughter of the late Augustus P. Gardner and Mrs. Constance Williams of Hamilton. Mrs. Williams is the daughter of the late Senator Lodge.

Mrs. Means was first married to Grafton W. Minot of Boston and New York. This wedding took place in 1915 and two children were born to the couple, William Amory Gardner Minot and Annie Lodge Minot. The Minots were divorced in 1923. Mrs. Minot obtaining an uncontested divorce in the Reno County court in 1923. Her marriage to W. Gordon Means followed the next year.

On his side, Means, who graduated from Harvard in 1906, and who is a member of several clubs, including the Somerset, the Myopia Hunt Club and the Boston Athletic Association, was first married on June 10, 1910 to Marjorie Reeves Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rice of New York. Three children were born to the couple. The wife obtained a divorce, partial custody of the children and alimony of $3000.

In Marital Rift

Mrs. W. Gordon Means of Bride's Crossing, granddaughter of Senator Lodge, has parted from her husband who petitions for custody of their son.

TO RESUME HOSPITAL INQUIRY ON NOV. 14

The special committee of the City Council probing conditions at City Hospital, in executive session today, voted to hold their next public hearing in the City Council chamber, at 2 p. m., November 14. The committee reconsidered its previous vote to meet at the City Hospital because they had heard nothing from the trustees.

SAVE TWO FROM AUTO SUNK IN RIVER

An eighty-year-old woman and a man miraculously escaped death today when a sedan in which they were driving on the Charles River rd., Dedham, blew a tire, skidded and plunged over a twelve-foot embankment into the water.

The man, E. E. Wilgus of Oriole st., West Roxbury, was able to fight his way out of the closed car, and drag Mrs. Mary Good, 80, his mother-in-law, to the roof of the machine before the water closed over the doors.

Passing motorists sent out emergency calls, and John Sayce, proprietor of a nearby gasoline station, went to the aid of the victims in a canoe. After considerable maneuvering in the frail craft, Sayce managed to get Mrs. Good and Wilgus to the shore of the river.

They were taken to their home and given medical treatment.

The scene of the near tragedy was near the so-called Needham st. bridge, where a few weeks ago a man and his wife plunged to death in another machine.

FOUR MONTHS IN JAIL FOR FORMER DRY AGENT

Judge Lowell in Federal court today sentenced James Gillen of Fairhaven, former prohibition agent, to four months in Plymouth jail on charges of conspiring to smuggle liquor into the United States at Hyannis. Imposition of sentence on Maurice Phinney, real estate operator of Hyannisport, was deferred. They, with Chief of Police Nelson Cressy of Hyannis, were convicted last spring, following a Lig run expose on the Cape.

Boy, 5, Killed in Fall

Leominster, Nov. 8 (AP)—Harry W. Floyd, five, son of Daniel A. Floyd, died today of skull fracture as a result of a 35-foot fall yesterday to the bottom of an elevator well in the old Woods block.

ARMISTICE DAY PARADE TO BE HELD SUNDAY

The American Legion's local Armistice Day parade will be held next Sunday afternoon.

This was decided upon by Maj.-Gen. Edward L. Logan after the differences of opinion between the veterans and the Retail Trade Board of the Chamber of Commerce were aired, relative to keeping stores open on the holiday on Monday.

Gen. Logan, however, implied after the discussion of the plans that if the stores keep open on Monday, the veterans may parade on that day.

Secretary Edward F. O'Dowd of the veteran's committee has made public the plans for the parade which promises to be the best ever held.

Gen. Logan is to be chief marshal of the parade, which will start at 2:30 in the afternoon from Commonwealth ave. and Arlington st.

As chief of staff Gen. Logan has selected Lieut.-Col. Thomas F. Murphy and Lieut.-Cols. Eben S. Draper, Sinclair Weeks, Walter Vanderhoef, John J. Atkinson and Waldron H. Rand, Jr., as assistant chiefs of staff.

The route will be Arlington st., Boylston, Tremont, Temple pl., Washington, School, Beacon to Charles st. The parade will be reviewed by Mayor Malcolm E. Nichols and by Governor Fuller at the State House. The chief marshal will review the marchers at Charles and Beacon sts.

The 101st Infantry under Col. Arthur W. Dalrymple will head the first division.

In the second division will be found members of the G. A. R. in automobiles; United States Spanish War Veterans; Greater Boston Chapter, Military Order of the World War and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The Legion division in the third division. It will be crowded with bands and colorful features. Dept. Comdr. William H. Griffin will head the division with Dennis H. Haverty as chief of staff.

Mrs. Clarence R. Edwards, wife of the former commander of the 26th Division will escort the division war veterans.

The Fourth Division will include officers of the Boston School Cadets, under their instructors; the Boy Scouts in charge of Scout Executive Donald C. North; the Martin School Band and various church cadet organizations.

Secretary O'Dowd's statement, in part, says:

"The formal Armistice Day exercises, under the auspices of the Legion, will begin in Symphony Hall at 8 p. m. Sunday. Unoccupied seats will be open to the public at 7:45 p. m.

"The exercises will be presided over by Dr. Griffin.

"Senator David I. Walsh will deliver the oration."

BORAH PREDICTS EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS

Washington, Nov. 8 (AP)—A special session of Congress next spring will be necessary to carry out the Republican pledge of farm legislation, in the opinion of Senator Borah, who took an active part in behalf of Herbert Hoover in the campaign. Appraising the problem as requiring more time for solution than will be available at the short session beginning in December, the senator said today that no serious attempt could be made before March 4 to get farm legislation underway.

CECILE SOREL TO AUCTION OFF MME. DU BARRY'S BED

Paris, Nov. 8 (AP)—Cecile Sorel, famous actress, who in private life is the Vicomtesse Guillaume De Segur, is to auction her bed which was used by Mme. Du Barry, 150 years ago. This is going on the block with the rest of Cecile's antiques, she will use the proceeds to refurnish her home with the products of contemporaries.

In highly entertaining picture strips the romantic career of Herbert Hoover will be portrayed in the Boston Evening American beginning next Monday.

Few Americans of the present generation provide material for such interesting narrative as does the President-elect.

Through peace and war, from farmhouse to the threshold of the White House, these sketches will carry him, appearing daily.

You cannot afford to miss this feature.

RELIEF FROM HABIT-FORMING LAXATIVES

Sufferers from constipation will welcome a remedy that is made to do more than just relieve immediate symptoms! Thalax—it is called.

Thalax tends to do away with medicine taking! For besides bringing prompt relief, it so strengthens and tones the bowels themselves, that their natural action is gradually restored, and after a reasonable time no more medicine should be necessary, except possibly at rare intervals. Thalax puts life into bowel muscles that have been relaxed or weakened by too much drugging.

Take one or two Thalax tablets tonight at bedtime. In the morning you will experience a natural movement, without griping or distress. Use Thalax at intervals until your bowel movements become normal and natural again, then stop using it. The natural bowel action will continue. No habit will be formed. You will experience no harmful after-effects whatsoever. Instead, the relief will be very noticeable and welcome.

Leading druggists everywhere sell Thalax. 50c per bottle of 30 tablets. If your druggist hasn't it, send direct to the makers, K. A. Hughes Company, Boston, Mass.

HER HUSBAND'S HAIR WAS FULL OF ITCHY DANDRUFF

Turning Gray Too And It Made Him Look Old And Untidy

BEGAN GIVING HIM TREATMENT AT HOME

"I wish you could see the marvelous change in the appearance of his hair and scalp since I began rubbing into his scalp a little of this Lea's Hair Tonic—I figured if women could stimulate the growth and rid themselves of gray hairs and unhealthy scalp conditions with it—a man could do the same," declared a lady customer at the drug store.

"His scalp is as clean and healthy looking as a new born baby's and Lea's Hair Tonic brought back the color to every gray hair in his head. Business friends say Harry looks years younger—yet never suspect how I worked rubbing in the Lea's with my finger tips. Gee, results were so splendid I began using it too." Mrs. A. M. K.

Men like it for the way it stimulates the growth of hair and the way it rids the scalp of dandruff, and when their gray hairs start coming back to original color they are amazed. Lea's restores the scalp roots and hair to proper working conditions which produce healthy, natural looking hair in abundance. It positively will stimulate the growth of hair on a larger percentage of bald heads than any other known tonic. Druggists have it or send dollar bill to Lea Tonic Company, Brentwood, Md., for bottle and directions by return mail.

CONTESTS FOR CONGRESS IN DOUBT

(By the Associated Press)

The full measure of the overwhelming victory which sent even rock-ribbed Democratic States into Herbert Hoover's column was still to be completely ascertained today, but from returns, rapidly becoming complete, it was evident that new President will come into office with the greatest electoral majority in all history and with a popular vote exceeding any before it.

Likewise the country has still to learn—and it no doubt will be days before all the facts are known—how great a part the presidential vote played in giving President-elect Hoover a Republican Congress.

GAINS IN CONGRESS

In Virginia, for instance, two districts were still in doubt today, with the chances leaning toward adding Republican Congressmen to the State's roll. The Old Dominion already has contributed two Republicans definitely to the majority of that party in the House—men who were undoubtedly swept into office on the tide of Hoover sentiment which shook Virginia from its Democratic moorings for the first time since reconstruction days.

Kentucky's leap into the Republican column was whole-hearted and almost complete. In place of eight Democrats and three Republicans who represent that State in the House at present, the Hoover wave changed the representation to nine Republicans and two Democrats.

SOME REPUBLICANS LOSE.

Sweeping aside of Democratic Congressmen was noted in various localities, although in two or three instances, Republicans were forced to give up their seats to Democrats.

The Senate Democrats all felt the blow of the Hoover landslide. Six of their places up for re-election went to Republicans whereas all of the thirteen Republican places were retained by the candidate of that party.

Despite the Republican sweep, three Democrats in the North replaced Re...icans. This honor is claimed ... Louis Ludlow, newspaperman, ... Indiana, who defeated Representative Updike in the Indianapolis district; Jeremiah O'Connell, who defeated Representative Monast in the Third Rhode Island District, and Joel Smith, who broke the Republican sweep in West Virginia to upset Representative England in the Sixth District.

A contest is on in Philadelphia where Representative James M. Beck was running close to his Democratic opponent, William L. Rooney in the First Pennsylvania District.

ROOSEVELT LEAD IN N. Y. RACE IS CUT TO 24,609

New York, Nov. 8 (AP)—Belated returns today on the contest for Governor of New York reduced the lead of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democrat, over Albert Ottinger, Republican, to 24,609 votes.

The totals, with 23 districts missing, was: Roosevelt, 2,109,363; Ottinger, 2,084,754.

and growing girls and boys need candy.

Sugar, considering its value to the body, is by far the cheapest food known to man.

And now especially, under prohibition, with many no longer getting from alcohol the carbohydrates formerly consumed, the national consumption should be restored to the old ratio.

Rothstein, the gambler, who "would not tell who killed him," is buried in a $10,000 bronze coffin.

A man from Chicago who knows gamblers, gunmen and criminals generally, says, "Don't take too seriously the yarn that the underworld never squeals.

"The underworld is made up largely of squealers, 'stool-pigeons' the police call them, always ready to betray their fellows. Detectives make a point not to betray the stoolpigeon or tell where they get information. That, incidentally, makes them seem like a great detective, when all they do is to arrest somebody betrayed by a friend."

A sympathetic newspaper headline writer speaks of the "overburned ether" carrying election news to 30,000,000 radio listeners.

That writer forgets the old true statement, that legions of angels could dance on the point of a needle, if they were angels of the right size.

The ether wouldn't be overburned with messages if they were sent to a trillion places at once or ten times that.

We forget human beings are gigantic creatures. The unit of size is the electron.

Ten million angels the size of an atom, made up of electrons revolving around a central proton billions of times in a second, could be located in one corner of your eye and you wouldn't know it.

Man is a big thing. His imagination is not.

AL UNDECIDED ON BANK POST; QUITS POLITICS

New York, Nov. 8 (AP)—Governor Alfred E. Smith does "not expect ever to run for public office again," but is still undecided as to what his future business or professional activities will be.

The Herald Tribune says it is being rumored he is to be offered the chairmanship of the board of directors of a projected new $55,000,000 Wall Street bank. The bank is being organized by Eugene L. Norton, vice-chairman of the board of the Baltimore Trust Company.

The names of William F. Kenny, the governor's close friend; John J. Raskob the Fisher brothers of Detroit, and members of the Du Pont family are being mentioned as possible associates on the board of directors of the new bank, the Herald Tribune says.

WILL NOT RUN AGAIN

Although Raskob, last August, denied that he was interested in the bank, the Herald Tribune points out that his statement at that time left open the possibility of future connection. Announcement of definite plans for the formation of the bank, the paper says it has learned, was withheld pending the outcome of the election but now may be expected within a few days.

The bank will have the largest capital funds with which any bank has ever been organized in this country.

The governor, in an interview yesterday, said: "I certainly do not expect ever to run for public office again. I have had all I can stand of it. I have given a quarter of a century of probably the best years of my life to it.

"I will never lose my interest in public affairs, that is a sure thing, but as far as running for office again is concerned, that is out."

"PLEASANT MEMORIES"

The governor was his usual buoyant self at the press conference, laughing and joking with the reporters as he parried or answered the questions they fired at him.

Asked if he had any regrets over the campaign the governor said: "No, I've nothing but pleasant memories." Then he smiled and continued, "There is one thing the figures indicate, and that is that no man in the country except one ever got more votes for the presidency than I did."

"Who was that, Governor?" one asked.

"Herbert Hoover," said Governor Smith, and the reporters laughed.

Simple Way to Be Rid of Gas

PEOPLE who belch after eating may not realize that the cause is excessive gastric acid. Or may not have been told how easily this may be remedied. Quick and complete relief can be obtained by taking a little "Pape's Diapepsin" after eating or when pain is felt. Remember this for your comfort, and lest that constant gas on the stomach does not drift into gastritis!

"Pape's Diapepsin" instantly neutralizes the excess stomach acid and soothes, heals and strengthens the inflamed stomach lining, thus promoting normal, painless digestion and helping to prevent future trouble.

For many years millions have used and recommended "Pape's Diapepsin" for the speedy and sure relief of indigestion and allied stomach troubles. Follow their example! Get a 60-cent package of "Pape's Diapepsin" from any druggist; no matter how severe your stomach troubles you will get relief.

CALIFORNIA IN BIG RECEPTION TO HOOVER

San Francisco, Nov. 8 (AP)—California Republicans today began laying plans for a gigantic reception in honor of a favorite son, President-elect Hoover.

Although the Republican central committee of Santa Clara county, in which Hoover's home is located, sponsored the plans a share in the projected reception was assigned to the state organization. It is to be held in San Jose. The date has not been decided upon.

The majority rolled up for the Republican standard bearer reached almost a half million votes in California when returns from 4431 precincts out of the 9096 in the state had been tabulated. The vote was: Hoover, 1,043,617; Smith, 581,930.

Great as it was, Hoover's overwhelming majority was less than that of the veteran Senator Hiram Johnson of California, seeking re-election in a race against Minor Meers of Los Angeles, a Democrat. Johnson's vote in 3241 precincts—176 fewer precincts than those reporting presidential totals—was 1,674,536, against only 581,674 for Meers.

Senator Johnson was confined to his bed here today recuperating from a slight touch of influenza which prevented him from voting in Tuesday's election.

GANG TORTURES VICTIM WITH HOT FORKS

Chicago, Nov. 8 (AP)—Torture by fire—heat-reddened forks pressed into the flesh of the cheeks, lighted matches held to scorch the face—again has been resorted to as a gang method to make an enemy "squeal."

Edward Jackson, negro garage worker, told police of the torture, saying it was employed by two men to force him to tell the whereabouts of a man they sought. The man, Jackson said, was John (Dinbat) Oberta, defeated candidate for State Senator.

The gangsters also sought to learn from Jackson the whereabouts of Danny McFall, known to police as a one-time ally of "Polack Joe" Saltis, a figure in the "beer racket."

"They heated a table fork red hot and pressed it against my cheek," Jackson said. "Then they lit matches and held the flame close to my face."

Two men were arrested, and Jackson identified Walter Zwolinski as one of his torturers.

HOLDS COURT IN JAIL TO SENTENCE TWO MEN

For the first time in history, a session of the Municipal Court was held in Charles St. Jail today, with Judge Michael Murray presiding.

Edward M. Quinn and Edward J. Worcester, inmates of the jail, were sentenced to one year each for having narcotic drugs in their possession. Under the law they are entitled to an appeal, but owing to the enfeebled condition of the prisoners they were unable to go to court. Judge Murray then decided if the mountain could not go to Mohammed, Mohammed could go to the mountain, and gave orders forthwith to Clerk Harvey Hudson.

AVIATOR IS FINED $200 FOR BREAKING R. I. LAWS

Providence, Nov. 8 (AP)—The first prosecution of an aeronautical case in the history of Rhode Island took place today when Joseph Lyman, 22, of Northampton Mass., admitted sufficient evidence to convict when arraigned in District Court, charged with flying so low as to endanger the lives of the public and was fined $200 and costs.

Lyman in a biplane flew low over the Brown Stadium on October 27 during the Brown-Tufts football game, frightening hundreds of spectators.

MRS. GOULD IS GRANTED CUSTODY OF STOLEN CHILD

Mrs. Evangeline Antie Gould, 18, of Murdock st., Cambridge, who was arrested with her sister, Jeriel Antie, fancy diver and swimmer, when they took one-year-old Emmeline Gould from Mrs. Ethel L. Stearns of Brighton, was today awarded custody of the child. The award was made by Judge Colin C. Campbell in Middlesex Probate Court, the baby being brought in on summons in custody of Deputy Sheriff Bent.

Mass. Mother Has Problem

As a rule, milk is about the best food for children, but there are times when they are much better off without it. They should always be left off when children show by feverish, fretful or cross spells, by bad breath, coated tongue, sallow skin, indigestion, biliousness, etc., that their stomach and bowels are out of order.

In cases like this, California Fig Syrup never fails to work wonders, by the quick and gentle way it removes all the souring waste which is causing the trouble, regulates the stomach and bowels and gives these organs tone and strength so they continue to act normally, of their own accord. Children love its rich, fruity flavor and it's purely vegetable and harmless even for babies.

Millions of mothers have proved its merit and reliability in over 50 years of steadily increasing use. A Massachusetts mother, Mrs. Frank Townsend, 8½ Auburn St., Boston, says: "My little girl Grace's tendency to constipation was a problem to me until I began giving her California Fig Syrup. It helped her right away and soon her stomach and bowels were acting perfectly. Since then I've never had to have any advice about her bowels. I have also used California Fig Syrup with my little boy, with equal success."

To be sure of getting the genuine, which physicians endorse, always ask for California Fig Syrup by the full name.

PERES FEAR SONNENBERG

Pere Marquette football team is all set for their game with the Steel Roller eleven of Providence at Braves Field on Saturday afternoon. Coach Tom Whalen of the Peres realizes they must stop Gus Sonnenberg to win.

Sonnenberg who played for Dartmouth and Detroit University is said to be the one he is afraid of. [illegible]

The game which is for the New England championship, has created considerable interest about town. Providence followers of the pro game are coming up for the game to the number of 1000 or more.

Tommy is a Newton boy and starred for Newton High, Exeter and on the Harvard freshman eleven before gaining his present varsity berth. Gilligan comes from a football family, having two other brothers who have starred on the gridiron.

TOMMY GILLIGAN, star Harvard halfback is not expected to play against Penn Saturday. Tommy was hurt in the Harvard-Lehigh game and has not worked out with the varsity team this week. His loss will be keenly felt by the team, for Gilligan is one of the best ball carriers playing the game.

MANOLIAN NO MATCH FOR AL

Lowell Boxer Now New England Middleweight Champ; Also Welter Title Holder

By JACK CONWAY

AL MELLO today holds the New England welterweight and middleweight championships.

He won the welter title by defeating Jack Manolian of Boston in a ten-round bout at the Boston Garden last night.

Mello weighed 145 pounds and Manolian 144.

Mello was the aggressor throughout the bout and his superior ring generalship enabled him to win by a wide margin.

Manolian was unable to solve Mello's attack and was apparently tiring in the last few rounds.

Mello weighed in at 144 pounds and Manolian 143.

By MRS. CORNELIUS BEEKMAN

DEAR MRS. BEEKMAN:

I wish to announce my engagement very soon and will do so the right [illegible] manner. Is it necessary to have cards engraved? Is it permissible to write to the fiancé's parents announcing the engagement?

No, it is not necessary to have cards engraved. It is permissible to write to the fiancé's parents announcing the engagement, but it is more correct to announce it by calling on them. It is not proper to announce the engagement in any other way than to send out visiting cards.

BAER FACTS

BY ARTHUR BUGS BAER

DURING the last one hundred and forty-four years we have had thirty-eight elections in America.

We have not had thirty-eight Presidents, due to the fact that some Presidents have been elected twice and some not at all.

What we would like to know is how the ex-President acts when he meets the inward-bound victor.

There have never been any laws written about this business, as Congress figures it is better to allow the boys to use good judgment instead of amendments.

First of all, Mr. Coolidge will have to go up into the attic and dust off that doormat with "Welcome" on it.

It has been up there for eight years. When the new man strolls up the sixteen steps in one leap, Mr. Coolidge smiles a minority report and says:

"Good morning."

The new man rushes right by and yells, "Good-by."

Mr. Coolidge replies, "What's your hurry? I ain't leaving yet. My lease ain't up for four months."

The new man says, "What's that room over there with nine chairs?"

Mr. Coolidge explains, "That's the room in which the Cabinet resigns."

The new man thanks him and asks, "What's all that paper in the garage?"

Mr. Coolidge wises him up. "That's all the bills that Congress tried to slip over on me in the last session."

The new man asks, "Does Congress hold its sessions in the garage?"

Mr. Coolidge flushes up and says, "No; but it amounts to the same thing in the end. If you're smart, you will build another garage."

Then the new man sees something else. He asks, "That's that Jigger?"

"Why," says Mr. Coolidge in an outburst of boyish candor, "That's the iron hoss."

Not to be outdone in Oriental courtesy, the new man refrains from inquiring whether Mr. Coolidge got the iron hoss from the Senate or from Santa Claus.

After several hours of this unauthorized chatter, the new man realizes that Mr. Coolidge still enjoys squatter's sovereignty for four more months. So he goes away and, on March 4, he sneaks up on Cal in a blizzard.

Intimate Glimpses of the Nation's He-Men.

IT is all very well for the wealthy leaders in a democracy to dedicate their lives to service. But most of them do more than this. For instance, G. When Food Sours

Sweeten the stomach—instantly

About two hours after eating many people suffer from sour stomache. They call it indigestion. It shows that the stomach nerves have been over-stimulated. There is excess acid. The way to correct it is with an alkali, which neutralizes many times its volume in acid.

The right way is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia—just a tasteless dose in water. It is pleasant, efficient and harmless. It has remained the standard with physicians in over 50 years since its invention.

It is the quick method. Results come almost instantly. It is the approved method. You will never use another when you know.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drugstore.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

TAPE AN HOUR BEHIND GREAT BULL MARKET

With the stock tickers more than an hour behind actual sales in Wall Street this afternoon, a new record was set for overtaxing reporting facilities. It was believed sales would cross the 5,000,000 share mark.

Gains ranged from 1 to 12 points, as the so-called "Hoover market" moved forward after a period of profit-taking.

The bankers called in about 350,000,000 for the process of adjusting their week-end reserves, but there was no dearth of funds in the call loan market. The call rate continued at 6 per cent, with 5½ per cent bid in the outside market both for call and time loans.

Stocks of the copper and oil companies led the activity of the general market, but their progress was slower than in recent sessions due to the large volume of offerings which had to be absorbed. Nevada Copper, Kennecott and other favorites gold into new high ground.

The big financial news item of the day was not ready for publication until after the close of the market. This was the General Motors Corporation's melon-cutting, through which it was expected that a new split-up of the stock would give each stockholder 250 shares of $5 dividend stock in exchange for 100 shares of $7 stock now held. General Motors was dull and quiet in the forenoon, but demand for the stock increased as the session advanced, and a three-point gain was registered in the third hour.

THREE COTTON AND RAYON COMPANIES MERGE

New York, Nov. 8 (AP)—Organization under Delaware laws of the Camps Corporation, formed by consolidation of three rayon and cotton underwear manufacturing companies into one unit, believed to be the largest maker of women's rayon and cotton knit underwear in the United States, and an extensive distributor of men's underwear, is announced.

The corporation will acquire assets and business of the Camps Corporation of New York and the outstanding securities of the Century Knitting Corporation and the Ballard Knitting Co. It will have an annual capacity of 30,000,000 garments.

How Did You Spend $12.57 You've Lost Since Oct., 1920?

Washington, Nov. 8 (AP)—In the United States on October 31 there was $4,867,736,463 in money in circulation, or $46.40 per capita of the estimated population of 119,820,000 the country had on that date. The figures were announced today by the Treasury.

The circulation statement showed a steady fall in the per capita currency circulation since October, 1920, one year after it amounted to $53.01 per person. Last year during October the per capita circulation was $42.17.

Noted Guest Talks to Club Women

NATHAN HASKELL DOLE, linguist, educator and biographer, and Mrs. Gertrude Capen Whitney, author of nearly a dozen books, were guests of honor on Founder's day, just observed by the New England Woman's Press Association.

Mr. Dole delighted his audience with his reminiscences of poets living and dead, whom he has known at some time in his life. As a boy he had the audacity, he says, to send poems to James Greenleaf Whittier, the result of which was the exchange of some very pleasant correspondence.

Longfellow was his father's French teacher, and many were the visits Mr. Dole paid to the poet. James Russell Lowell and Oliver Wendell Holmes came in for interesting anecdotes.

KNEW EMERSON

Ralph Waldo Emerson had the head of a saint, and at the time Mr. Dole knew him, was suffering from aphasia, and had no memory for faces. He tells how quite recently Walt Whitman was in his disordered little room in Camden, the man whom the English appreciated. He told how Robert Frost got his foothold on the ladder of fame, with the English public, by giving him the first boost up.

Mr. Dole thinks one of the greatest needs of the present time is Edwin Markham, who makes use of good Saxon words.

So much New England blue has possessed greater versatility in intellectual accomplishments than Nathan Haskell Dole, yet he once said a most surprising thing.

"Education is deadly to you, if you want to make a success," he said. "Amass a lot of slang and use it, then you'll become a classic like Shakespeare. Take yourself with the most utter seriousness, see just one side of every question, pay no attention to anything or anyone, drive straight ahead like a juggernaut. Then you'll be famous and rich!"

MOTTO GIVEN

Since his own private philosophy of life is, "Be modest, unruffled, cheerful in all circumstances; devoid of that easily-cultivated weed, self-pity; free from fear, and willing to face whatever may befall!"

I think he was laughing up his sleeve when he made this statement about being self-centered and proficient in the use of slang.

FRIDAY MEETINGS

LABOR OPENS PACT ATTACK

London, Nov. 8 (AP)—Although Lord Cushendun, acting foreign secretary, has pronounced the Anglo-French naval compromise dead, labor leaders were determined today to move censure of the government in the House of Commons because of the accord.

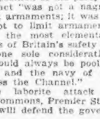
Ramsay MacDonald, labor leader, outlined the position of his party by saying the pact "was not a step forward to limit armaments; it was an agreement not to limit armaments. It sacrificed the most elementary considerations of Britain's safety except upon one sole consideration, that they would always be pooling of our navy and the navy of the country across the Channel."

When the labor attack is launched in Commons, Premier Stanley Baldwin will defend the government policy.

Lord Cushendun's announcement that the pact dead was made in the House of Lords after labor and liberal leaders had attacked the agreement on the grounds of injury to American opinion and of concession to France on the question of trained reserves.

MUSIC SERIES OPENS SUNDAY AT HUB HOTEL

At the Arlington Hotel on Sunday afternoon, November 11, at 4 o'clock, the first of a series of "An Hour of Music" will be given.



Nancy Kessler

Artists will be Nancy Kessler, contralto, and Rita Breault, pianist.

ALLAN DWAN OF FILMS TO PAY WIFE $10,000 YEARLY

New York, Nov. 8—Allan Dwan, motion picture director, is to pay his former wife, Paulin Bush Dwan, $10,000 a year and establish a fund to guarantee payment.

She said him under an agreement by which she was to receive a percentage of his earnings up to $26,000 a year.

BRITISH CO. TO MAKE FILMS IN HOLLYWOOD

By LOUELLA P. PARSONS

(Copyright, 1928, by Universal Service)

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8—Great Britain is about to smash the gates of Hollywood and make her own picture right here in the very citadel of the movies. That is real daring for you and plenty of first class nerve.

The British Dominion Company has engaged Marshall Neilan, to make "Behind the Headlines," a newspaper story at the Metropolitan Studios. Neilan will be the only American on the job. Perhaps I should say the only Irishman for all of the rest are half from Great England, accent, monocle, spats and all.

I suppose when Mickey outlined his plan to me he intended to bring the important British actors here but he left out the 4200 Brandon Hall fish actors in Hollywood. So all he has to do is to go out and assemble a cast from the talent already living here.

So far he hasn't engaged anyone but he just got back from New York so perhaps we'd better give him time.

THEY move so fast at the Fox company from day to day that it is almost necessary to take the notebook and camp on the lot lest you miss something worth while.

The latest bit of news concerns Warner Baxter, who has been signed to play opposite Mary Duncan in "Different Eyes." This is an all-talking picture, and it is Winfield Sheehan's pet and pride.

Baxter has had stage experience, and so, of course, has Mary Duncan. These days Hollywood is becoming an international affair. It used to hand me a laugh to see some of the actors reading their lines while walking along Broadway, or rehearsing on the corners. Today over the luncheon table or along the Boulevard you can overhear to see a movie actor saying his lines to himself. Irving Cummings will microphone "Through Different Eyes."

"I have got to get a look at him," said a woman almost elbowing me off the sidewalk at Grauman's Chinese Theater, when the starter announced Ken Maynard's name. She hasn't been word about him, and I have never even laid eyes on him. That is what so many people in Hollywood say.

Maynard keeps pretty much to himself, socially, and his pictures have been seen on our best street theaters. But he is taking in the shekels and keeping his popularity, so you should worry about first-run houses.

His next is "The California Mail," an original story by Peter B. Kyne and by Marion Jackson and Al Rogell will direct. This is a story of the Civil War and the Indian days and in California, two themes that have been done over and over again in the movies, but Kyne has the genius to have interest. Dorothy Dwan plays opposite him and Captain Anderson and Paul Hurst are the other members of the cast selected.

HERE we have another stage director crashing the gates of Hollywood or perhaps that isn't a polite way for me to say it. Hollywood gates when you are specially invited to be one of the stars. I speak of Edward Royce who has directed most of many successful musical comedies and now he has just been signed by Winfield Sheehan to direct musical comedies, operettas and such like for the Fox Film Corporation.

Royce is responsible for some of the biggest musical comedies ever staged in New York. Who can forget "Good Morning, Dearie," "Apple Blossoms," "Irene," "Kid Boots," "Louie 14th" and "Ziegfeld Follies of 1920 and 21." That is going some, to get a man out here with a record like that. Is he not?

LOIS WILSON has just signed another contract with Columbia. It seems to me I am always writing a story about Lois and Columbia. Why? Well, maybe because she is the same old contract renewed or a fresh one. Anyway, she has elected to join the Ionia Corporation "All money," with Scotty Dunlap directing. Nothing is said about talking, so Lois's Hawaiian drawl won't mar her a bit of good in this particular opera.

YOU wouldn't expect Clara Bernanger to let her husband, William de Mille, go to Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer without her, would you? Never no! Neither would Bill do Mille-Clara who is his favorite scenario writer. She has just signed a contract to write scenarios for M-G-M and it's a matter of congratulation both ways for Clara does know her stuff and has proved it many times.

Where will Evelyn Brent go when the option on her services by Famous Players-Lasky expires in November? That is the question a few companies who are actively bidding for her would like to know. Evelyn is a conservative young person who keeps her own counsel and hears little.

Within the past year she has become one of the best-liked and most popular of our stars and she can come and go without a ripple. So far she has not said she would resign with Famous Players-Lasky. However, one hears so much, I don't know when she decides what she is going to do. We will be interested.

SNAPSHOTS of Hollywood collected at random: Maurice Chevalier, a Frenchman with apparently no complaining Henry on the quality of his food. Lois Wilson and Clarence Brown aboard after visiting her married sister, who was taken there yesterday morning. A few visitors allowed" sign tacked on the door of Mrs. John Robertson's room in the same hospital.

Elsie Schildkraut receiving congratulations for the first time since her operation. George O'Brien very brave and handsome in a British officer's uniform. Lois Moran demonstrating that when it comes to inhaling a cigarette she has achieved chimney talents.

FIRST CONCERT A SUCCESS FOR HUB PIANIST

By MOSES SMITH

A. Josef Alexander, local pianist, made his first public appearance in a full-length program at Jordan Hall, where a considerable audience heard him appreciatively. For a debut concert, his reception was unusually cordial.

The pianist arranged a "safe" program, exhibiting a number of styles and periods. First, three short pieces by Scarlatti, Rameau and Bach; then an unfamiliar sonata in D-flat major by Glazounow, Op. 46; a D-flat nocturne and G minor ballade; finally, an assorted miscellany of short pieces by modern composers.

The artist has a finished and brilliant technique, which he needed for the Glazounow sonata and Liszt's showy Mephisto Valse. He is particularly adept at light passage-work, soft and pearly scales, as he showed in Grandjany "Children and the Nightingale," and Chaloff's "Printemps" etude. His passage-work in general is very secure, whether in light touch or bold stroke is needed.

In the Chopin numbers he also displayed the usual fine taste. His interpretations here lacked maturity, definiteness of design, but such things he will undoubtedly grow, for he appears to be not only musical but a thinker as well. If he does not play brilliantly in a first concert, to have the thing done with. Then the public settles down to serious making.

A parting shot of advice for him is this: Be more differentiate more carefully between different styles, to set the mood for a particular composition. This most often the secret lies in tempo.

CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND

Must Be Scrapped

Lord Grey Bears Out Position of Hearst Newspapers on the "Whispering Peer"

On Monday Viscount Grey of Fallodon, Great Britain's famous ex-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, demanded a scrapping of the Anglo-French Naval-Army Accord, which proposed to give Great Britain a free hand to dominate the seas and France a free hand to dominate the land.

The English Liberal statesman designated the accord as a great blunder, primarily because it alienated the friendly public opinion of the United States, Great Britain's natural partner in co-operation for peace. Grey said that "we are going to pay the price in a temporary political estrangement between the British people and the United States."

If the British Government does the very sensible thing of following Lord Grey's advice, there will be a happy and quick solution to the incident which began when Hearst papers published to the world the terms of the secret Anglo-French Accord.

As we have contended—and it is a satisfaction to have Lord Grey bear us out—that the United States and England belong together as the natural champions of progressive democracy and international peace.

We have contended, and we still contend, that the military, naval and financial power of the two great Anglo-Saxon nations, if combined, would be the greatest imaginable force for world peace.

The added enemy to this development is the jingoistic Tory Party of Great Britain. It is the spirit which lay behind the British Admiralty's refusal to negotiate for naval disarmament on the basis of an equality between Great Britain and the United States. The devotees of British navalism found their natural allies in the devotees of French navalism. The fruit of their conference was the now notorious Anglo-French naval accord.

When the Hearst newspapers exposed the affair the majority of the British press rang with denunciations of it. They called it a "conspiracy" and demanded that the Government repudiate it. Lord Grey's words are an echo of the protest that swept through British public opinion.

The time for the inevitable Anglo-American agreement to co-operate in the cause of peace will come when England has a Government which recognizes the realities and turns from a policy of alliance with French militarism to a policy of equal partnership with America in the cause of peace.

Be Careful About Girls

Some "Pack a Punch"

Young women of this day are energetic, aggressive and like the worm, they will turn. Unlike the worm, some ladies, as they turn, will "swing on a gentleman's jaw."

Bear that in mind, even if you happen to be president of a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals.

Mr. Thomas Price, of South Orange, is the president of that society in New Jersey. What's more, he is secretary of the Union Pacific Railroad.

All this did not save him from being horsewhipped when he tried to take a lame horse from Miss Vivian Munce, proprietor of the Millburn Riding Academy, of South Orange.

Miss Munce, who knows a good deal about horses, was riding a mare that seemed to be lame in one front foot.

Mr. Price, who knows that it is his business to protect our dumb friends against heartless owners, told Miss Munce that she mustn't do that, and he would have to take the horse away.

In addition to horsewhipping the kind man, she is prosecuting him for horse stealing, and he must appear in court to answer.

The way of a transgressor is hard, but sometimes not as hard as that of the person trying to interfere with the transgressor.

In these days the more you let others alone, the safer you are. Even a tender female may surprise you.

Extraordinary

In all industrial history there is nothing like the romance of General Motors, with its earnings of $240,000,000 in the last nine months, which means nearly $1,000,000 a day for the stockholders.

The American corporation's way of making money is to keep the price down and be satisfied with a small return on a large volume of production. General Motors' rivals can testify to its influence in keeping the price down. As to volume of production, this year the company will sell seventeen hundred thousand cars.

Its prices are cheap enough, so that it has developed a stupendous foreign business. About one car of every five it manufactures now goes abroad.

An extraordinary record, no matter how you look at it.

Jovial Jupiter

From Belgium comes the astonishing news that an astronomer has found seven small planets near Jupiter.

Still more astonishing is that, up to date, nobody seems intending to do anything about it.

If the testimony of Mrs. Jupiter, nee Juno, can be accepted, it is practically impossible to keep the old man on the straight and narrow. Among his adventures that have broken into print are his affairs with Io, Eutopa and Leda. For years his escapades have been the scandal of the Four Hundred in Olympus.

It is to be expected that young bloods will sow their wild oats, but when seven planets are found to be revolving on fixed orbits as close as they can get to Jupiter, the future of the cosmos is involved.

Why can't the League of Nations do something about it?

What Counts!

Ex-Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, tells Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., that "the two indispensable conditions of good health are physical exercise and ample sleep."

Ex-Governor Lowden is sixty-seven years old. Few men of his age in the country can equal his mental and physical activity.

New York Day by Day

by O.O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, Nov. 8—There may be gold in the hills of Tin Pan Alley, but little of it has ever been mined. Everybody at some time or other writes a song, but in the long list only a small number have received noticeable profit. And only about a dozen have actually made fortunes.

For the great majority it is a tussle for "coffee and cake." The man who makes an income of $100 a week is considered fortunate by fellow artists in bingo-bango land. Women rarely succeed at the precarious game. The only recent notable example is the lady who wrote "Ramona."

It is a man's racket chiefly because it requires a masculine brashness—a nerve. Even a good song requires "plugging" or it will linger in obscurity on music shop shelves. It used to be vaudeville singers were paid to boost a new song.

Today the big boost comes from radio singers, and those who indulge in this highly unethical racket often ask as high as 50 per cent of the royalties for broadcasting. Exploitation of a song in most cases eats up the profits. Only an outstanding hit is profitable.

Jazz band leaders, phonograph record makers and others also come in for a slice of the spoils. As a result the author of a song is often plucked clean by petty graft. Irving Berlin is a financial success largely because he has his own publishing house and can thumb his nose at professional gleaners.

Music publishers long ago banded together not to pay theatrical acts to sing their songs. Hence this expense frequently falls on the luckless author. No end of the dilemma so far seems possible. If one must write songs, one must pay the army of pipers.

There are a few songs earning $100,000 in royalties, like "Alexander's Ragtime Band," for example. Today $20,000 is considered a fair return, and with exploitation for such a sale costing around $15,000 there is not much left for the author save seeing his name on the music sheet.

IT was Tad, the cartoonist, who bestowed the name of "hot dog" on the succulent wiener eaten in a mustard-smeared bun. And this name is responsible for their popularity, according to Harry Stevens, who should know, for he has made several millions dispensing them to hungry crowds. Stevens publishes the score cards and programs and furnishes the soft drinks and hot dogs for all important race tracks, baseball parks and prize fights in America. On his letterheads he

"Harry Stevens, Publisher—Caterer" which is indicative of something pretty near a sense of humor.

GREYHOUND racing at Staten Island this year did not seem to catch on as it has in Florida and California. New Yorkers attended chiefly out of curiosity. Those who know, however, say the idea has been planted and next year the sport will be quite a vogue. But always bet on the rabbit!

DURING the severest hot spell of last summer many panting New Yorkers found the coolest spot in town in the purpural gloom of Grant's Tomb.

A BRIGHT group of enthusiasts in a 54th street office started a "two hour for lunch" movement and presented it in a round robin to the boss. They now have the time they desire for lunch. All were immediately fired.

THE Childs restaurants restored meat to their menus some time ago, after going strictly vegetarian for a period. The noble humanitarian movement was unable to withstand a heavy slump in the price of its stock. For a few weeks they also gave water only to those who required pitifully what they used in place of it. But the public fixed that up, too.

LITTLE Patsy Kelley is the season's Broadway Cinderella. A short time ago she came out of the tenements in a faded skirt, sweater and tam to do a dance she picked up on the sidewalks in a vaudeville act—a wistful, spindly-legged child. Today in Parisian frocks she is queening it in a high class musical show.

WRITES one signing himself Mr. L. T.: "In your fashionable—ho, ho—New York today I met a man—ha, ha—with spats who had a toothbrush in his vest pocket—he, he!"

Sounds suspiciously to me like one of those dirty laughers!

LISTEN, WORLD!

By ELSIE ROBINSON

"WHAT'LL I do?"

Thousands of young people are running around the country at this moment asking that question. They are bright, ambitious young people, recently graduated from high school or college and now bent on hanging up records for themselves. But where will they start?

"I don't want to make the wrong start," comes the answer when you ask why they're loitering. "It's so hard to choose just the right thing. I'm sure if I could find the right thing I could make good in no time, but there seems to be so few opportunities. Of course, anyone can find a job, but that isn't what I want. I want something in my line—"

"And just what is your line?"

"Well—ever—that's hard to tell, exactly. You see I'd like something a little different—something that everybody isn't doing. I've often thought about taking up writing. I used to do some pretty good things for our college paper. Do you happen to know of any good opening in writing?"

So it goes. They're not all looking for writing. Sometimes they would accept a first class chance in interior decoration or designing or personal direction or sales management or something else equally ritzy and remunerative. But always they're looking for "just the right thing." Wherefore I propose to lend them a friendly hand.

How will you find just the right job? By grabbing off any old job and going through the preliminaries.

"JUST THE RIGHT JOBS" DON'T HAPPEN—THEY ACCUMULATE. THEY ARRIVE WHEN YOU'VE LEARNED YOUR STUFF—AND NOT BEFORE."

It's amazing how much alike all jobs are, fundamentally. You must go through certain experiences and develop certain qualities before you can succeed in any of them. Personally, I learned almost all I know about writing by cooking in a kitchen and shoveling muck in a mine.

Timbering shafts and creaming cauliflower may seem a far cry from literature, but they're not. The qualities which are necessary in good cooking and good mining are also necessary in good writing.

You must learn to stick—you must learn to play with the gang—to laugh at yourself and with the other fellow—to be cool under fire and fiery under coolness—all these qualities are basic to any job. And the first job that comes along will give you your chance to acquire them as well as the hundredth. You needn't stay in that job. You won't stay if you have the right stuff in you. But it is as good as any other for teaching you the fundamental principles of all work. So grab the first hunk of labor that presents itself, buckle—and get under way.

National Policies of the Hearst Papers

1. An agreement of English-speaking peoples to preserve peace among themselves and promote the peace of the world.
2. A constitutional amendment to provide for the election of United States Senators in numbers proportionate to the population of each State, but no State to have less than two Senators. A reapportionment of Congressional representation immediately after every census, or in case of the failure of Congress so to act, to make the apportionment automatic at the end of the first Congressional session, the proportion of population for each representative in each case to be that of the existing Congress.
3. A separate Department of the Army, of the Navy and of the Air Forces, all united under a Secretary of National Defense.
4. Federal action to the limit of Federal Government powers to abolish illiteracy among the people of the United States, and the creation of a Secretary of Education.
5. Necessary measures to secure the election of Congress in November and, its installation on the 1st of January following, and the inauguration of a President on the 1st of January immediately following his election in November.

Dress 'Em in Overalls

by Herbert Kaufman

Dress your thoughts in overalls if you expect them to do practical work. Fancy language confuses plain men. Action has a vocabulary all its own. Dictionaries and grammars don't approve some of the words—but they do fill order books.

Let professors and classicists preserve the purity of the English language while you procure customers and secure results with the phrase that best fits the job.

Though pedants and prigs may frown on it, the vital idiom finally breaks into good society.

If we but knew, Homer and Horace spouted many a low-brow sentence.

Since slang is the declaration of independent minds searching for vivid colors with which better to clarify emotions and ideas, the vernacular of one generation graduates into the formal speech of the next.

That's how Mr. Webster's famous little volume got to be such a big one.

They Had to Go

Fifty years ago the "Far West" was covered with a great buffalo robe beneath which no crop could grow—a herd of bison so vast, so omnivorous that its destruction must needs precede national expansion.

No farm could exist in the path of those monster migrations. We could have no cattle ranches until the buffalo range was cleared for beef herds. The buffalo had to go if the steer was to come. There wasn't room for both.

So, too, the incredible hosts of wild pigeons—which periodically hid the sun under their wings—were manifestly destined to disappear before the homesteader.

The yearly board bill of the boll-weevil is a trifle compared with the ravages which that far-reaching appetite would inflict upon our present granaries.

Civilization is an epic of annihilations; one type of life vanishes so that a more desirable species shall inherit. Progress is a process of selection. Only the hardiest and the most adaptable types endure.

Time cons the ages and remembers how often the universe has changed its face, its habits and its content—and always to human advantage. Nothing happens without a reason.

"V" VERSES by Herbert Kaufman
Vim Vigor Victory
Time penetrates the best disguise.
The woolly wolf can't hide his paw;
When overtaken by surprise
The bleached crow will forget and caw.
You ass is leonine in vain.
Brass tarnishes—all plate wears through,
We know cheap woods despite the shoe,
And quickly size up bluffs like you.
The pint that poses as a quart
When tested, must betray the mug.
Pretenders cannot long abort
Detection—failure checks deceit.
Life always "calls"—don't overbid;
We may not have your measure yet,
At honest worth, play brain and
But pretty soon, m'lad, we will.
skill.

WORDS OF THE WISE MEN

The temperature inside various types of hats was tested on a hot day. The highest records was the black silk hat 103 degrees; next came a lady's blue felt cloche and a ventilated black bowler, each 98 degrees.

At one important police center in London more than 200 reserve officers are ready, day and night, for any sudden emergency.

Opportunity is ever worth expecting; let your hook be ever hanging ready. The fish will be in the pool where you least imagine it to be. —Ovid.
